

Leadership Development

About the Series

The Leadership Development Series at Saint Francis University was developed to meet the needs of individuals and businesses seeking to strengthen professional leadership skills. The unique programs offered in the series provide students of leadership the skills to get better results and achieve their goals. Each program is presented by experience professionals.

The assorted programs offered within the Leadership Development Series will be held on the campus of Saint Francis University.

Participants of the Leadership Development Series may be: employers/employees looking for a team retreat to strengthen professional leadership skills; individuals desiring to develop professional skills to become more marketable in the workplace; students seeking to gain free elective credits at Saint Francis University. One credit may be earned for attending three programs and completing related assignments. Continuing Education Units are available (0.3 CEU's per workshop) as well as Act 48 credit.
