Enrollment

On this page, enter the number of candidates for an initial teaching credential who are enrolled in the initial teacher preparation programs within your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. Do not report on the total number of students enrolled in the entire IHE. Do not include individuals who currently hold a teaching credential and are seeking additional licenses or endorsements, or individuals preparing for school-based careers other than classroom teachers (e.g., administrators, guidance counselors).

The Department recognizes that in many cases, candidates voluntarily report their race/ethnicity and gender data, and that in some cases, candidates may choose not to report this information. Please report on the race/ethnicity data you have available, though the data may not be complete. It is not expected that the sum of the enrolled students reported by race/ethnicity or by gender will necessarily equal the total number of students enrolled.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the candidates enrolled in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the candidates enrolled in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the candidates enrolled in the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the enrollment data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Enrollment

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Additional guidance on reporting race and ethnicity data.

Total number of students enrolled in 2016-17	81
Unduplicated number of males enrolled in 2016-17	18
Unduplicated number of females enrolled in 2016-17	63

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled. (§205(a)(1)(C)(ii)(H))

2016-17	Number Enrolled
Ethnicity
Hispanic/Latino of any race	1
Race

2016-17	Number Enrolled

Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

SECTION I: PROGRAM INFORMATION

Program Completers

On this page, enter the total number of individuals who completed the program in AY 2016-17 and the two prior academic years. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the number of program completers for the two prior academic years are pre-loaded from your prior year's report.

A program completer is a person who has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program. Program completers include all those who are documented as having met such requirements. Documentation may take the form of a degree, institutional certificate, program credential, transcript or other written proof of having met the program's requirements. In applying this definition, the fact that an individual has or has not been recommended to the state for initial certification or licensure may not be used as a criterion for determining who is a program completer.

An individual cannot be classified as both enrolled and as a program completer at the same time. An enrolled individual is not a program completer. Once an individual has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program and becomes a program completer, the individual is no longer classified as enrolled.

After entering the program completers, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

An advisory panel from regional schools that share their needs with the university. The Education Department has a collaborative relationship with area schools that is anchored by the Professional Advisory Committee. This committee meets yearly to solicit feedback regarding program, students and graduates, and to understand the needs of school districts. Feedback about the quality of our students' program is also gained through the contact that Internship and student teaching field supervisors. Educators from area schools serve as adjunct professors and guest speakers, which gives students an authentic link to challenges surrounding children with disabilities, low income students, and limited English proficient students.

Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Instructional media use is integrated into all methods courses where students evaluate existing programs, design programs, compile information, present information and communicate effectively both in the classroom setting and beyond. Students work with the Standards Aligned Systems, Emetrics, and other PDE tools to develop skills in data-informed instruction. A new course EDUC 225: Assistive and Instructional Technology was added to the course sequence. This course has a dual focus: the use of technology to facilitate instruction in a diverse classroom, and assistive technology available for students with diverse needs. Students enrolled in EDUC225 Assistive and Instructional Technology will explore a wide variety of No, low and high tech assistive technology through access to Pennsylvania's Assistive Technology Lending Library. A presentation by a representative from Tobii-Dynovox will provide hands on experience with a range of Augmentative and Alternative Communication devices (AAC). Students will complete a mandatory visit to the Hiram G. Andrews Center, where they will attend mini presentations by OT, PT and Orientation and Mobility Specialists. All Education students are given a subscription to BoardMaker Online, a powerful web based program from Mayer Johnson, that allows teachers to create a wide range of visual supports using universally recognized symbols and utilize communication software that provides voice output. Education majors enrolled in EDUC305 IEP Content and Secondary Transition are given a subscription to IEP Writer, a comprehensive web based tool that allows teachers to create customizable Individual Education Programs for students receiving special education services as well as a wide range of other legal forms used by special education professionals. Over 500 districts and schools in the state of Pennsylvania currently use IEP Writer. Students in EDUC305 are required to create a legally correct IEP using this software. Students in several special education classes utilize Braille writing and labeling devices, a variety of switches and voice output devices. All students in EDUC 215 receive a semester long subscription to News2You, a leveled, online, interactive newspaper targeting diverse learners in grades K-12. The department will purchase and use a telepresence robot to allow pre-service students to learn to include students in K-12 who are homebound in the general education curriculum. The robot will also be used to meet the needs of pre-service students who are unable to attend classes in person due to health concerns.

SECTION VI: TEACHER TRAINING

Teacher Training

On this page, review the questions about how your program trains general education teachers and special education teachers. For the purposes of these questions, general education teachers means those who are not specifically prepared as special education teachers. If you submitted an IPRC last year, this section is pre-loaded from your prior year's report; please review and update as necessary.

After reviewing and updating as necessary, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Provide the following information about your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205(a)(1)(G))

 - b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams
 - Yes

 - c. teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Students who are enrolled in a general education certification program receive instruction in the history, theory and practice of special education over 9 credits. Students receive thorough instruction on the IDEA, including the history of the special education movement, the six principles of IDEA, the 13 disability categories listed in the act, plus Developmental Delay, which is recognized in Pennsylvania, case law that defines the act, and how the principles are implemented in the school system. Special emphasis is placed on the delivery of a free and appropriate public education for all students, through the evaluation process and the creation and implementation of Individual Educational Programs (IEPs) and 504 plans. In addition, all Education majors are required to take a three credit course that is devoted to teaching students who are English Language Learners (ELLs).

Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

In the Special Education certification programs offered by the Saint Francis University Education Department, students will receive training, including classroom instruction and related field work to address the needs of diverse learners. The Early Childhood/Special Education and the Middle Childhood/Special Education dual degrees were created in accordance with the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Program Guidelines for Special Education programs, and contain all of the required candidate competencies for the Special Education PreK-8 certification. Students receive specific classroom instruction and fieldwork opportunities directly related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in the IDEA. Special emphasis is given to the principles delineated in Project Max, an educational initiative by PDE that is designed to meet the needs of students with complex instructional needs. Students create a standard aligned unit plan utilizing Alternate Eligible Content from the PA Standard Aligned System, with special attention given to providing vocabulary instruction in core and context words, and principles of Universal Design of Learning. Students receive hands on training in the lab on meeting the needs of students with complex bodies and complex communication needs. Feeding, transfers and community based instruction interventions are covered. Students present and defend a legally correct IEP as a culminating assessment for the course. For example, in EDUC205 Introduction to Special Education, students are introduced to the structure and implementation of an IEP, and the responsibilities they will have as teachers who will be part of the IEP team. In EDUC305 Secondary transition and IEP Content, students construct an IEP, including a transition plan, for hypothetical students. They defend the IEP in a mock IEP meeting. EDUC 405 Low Incidence Disabilities and EDUC405 Lab are taken together and require students to utilize a wide range of resources provided by PaTTAN and PDE. In EDUC315, students are introduced to the FBA process. They conduct a simple FBA on a case study student and create a Behavioral Intervention Plan with a Measurable Annual Goal addressing a problem behavior identified in the FBA. Pre-service teachers receive instruction in meeting the needs of students who are English language learners in EDUC261 Linguistic Diversity in the Classroom (3 credits). All of the competencies in PDE's Accommodations and Adaptations for Students with Disabilities in an Inclusive Setting and Meeting the Needs of English Language Learners Program Guidelines are met in EDUC261 as well as several other courses. Students spend from 4-15 hours working with students in the field for every Education course, where they connect classroom content to real life experience.
