Fuel The Francis Experience: Unrestricted Giving

Strengthening Saint Francis Where It Matters Most

Some of the most important investments are the ones we cannot always anticipate.

Every year brings new opportunities and new challenges for Saint Francis University. A student may need unexpected assistance. A promising academic initiative may require support. New technology may enhance teaching and learning. An emerging opportunity may allow the University to strengthen student life, advance its Catholic and Franciscan mission, or respond to a need that could not have been predicted when the year's budget was developed.

Unrestricted gifts give Saint Francis University the flexibility to say “yes” when those moments arise. Unlike gifts designated for a specific program or project, unrestricted support can be directed to the University's areas of greatest need and greatest opportunity.

It provides resources that University leadership can put to work immediately, strengthening the educational experience while helping Saint Francis remain responsive, innovative, and faithful to its mission.

The impact may look different from year to year, but the purpose remains the same: to provide Saint Francis University with the resources to serve its students and advance its mission wherever support is needed most.

Why Unrestricted Giving Matters

Unrestricted giving support touches virtually every aspect of the Francis Experience.

It can help the University:

- Respond to emerging student needs.
- Invest in academic programs and teaching.
- Enhance technology and learning resources.
- Strengthen student life and campus experiences.
- Advance Catholic and Franciscan initiatives.
- Seize opportunities that might otherwise be beyond our reach.

What Your Gift Makes Possible

As we commemorate the 800th Anniversary of the passing of our patron, St. Francis of Assisi, we celebrate a legacy that has endured because generation after generation has chosen to carry it forward.

At Saint Francis University, that responsibility belongs to us today.

For nearly 180 years, the University has adapted to changing times while remaining rooted in the Franciscan values upon which it was founded. Unrestricted giving provides the flexibility to continue that work—responding to today's needs while preparing Saint Francis for the opportunities of tomorrow.

Students First

Respond when students need us most. Unrestricted support gives Saint Francis the flexibility to address emerging student needs and opportunities.

Academic Excellence

Invest in teaching and learning. Support can strengthen academics, provide learning resources, and help faculty deliver an exceptional experience.

Innovation & Technology

Keep the Francis Experience moving forward. Flexible resources allow the University to invest in new technologies, equipment, and emerging approaches to teaching and learning.

A Vibrant Campus

Enrich life beyond the classroom. Unrestricted giving can strengthen student activities, campus experiences, wellness, and the opportunities that help students connect and belong.

Opportunity Fund

Give Saint Francis the ability to say “yes.” When an unexpected opportunity arises, unrestricted resources allow the University to act rather than wait.
