

SFU General Education Objectives within Education

#1: Understand ethical and oral complexities

#2: Develop an understanding of the importance of human and cultural diversity

#4: Develop the skills necessary for effective communication in a variety of formal and informal contexts.

#6: Develop critical reasoning skills and abilities.

#9: Demonstrate knowledge in the traditional liberal arts and sciences with attention to primary source materials, multicultural issues and interdisciplinary topics.

#13: Develop an appreciation of the visual arts, music, theater and literature through creative expression, performance and analysis of artistic works.

Adult Degree & Continuing Studies Education Degree Learning Outcomes:

Goals and indicators:

1. Demonstrate clear writing and communication skills.
2. Know the subjects teachers will instruct and how to teach the content to students.
 - Demonstrate a deep and flexible understanding of content areas and be able to draw upon content knowledge to work with learners to access information, apply knowledge in real world settings, and address meaningful issues to assure learner mastery of the content.
 - Describe how knowledge in the subject is created, organized, linked to other disciplines and applied to real-world settings.
 - Develop the critical and analytical capacities of students.
3. Manage and monitor student learning.
 - understand and integrate assessment, planning, and instructional strategies in coordinated and engaging ways.
4. Think systematically and analytically about practice.
 - Create and support a safe, productive learning environments that result in learners achieving at the highest level
 - Critically examine practice, deepen knowledge, sharpen judgment and adapt teaching to new findings, ideas, and theories.