Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Trustees
Saint Francis University

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Saint Francis University, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Saint Francis University as of June 30, 2017 and 2016, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Nature of Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

Saint Francis University (the "College") is a not-for-profit educational institution located in Loretto, Pennsylvania. The College awards grants-in-aid and scholarships from its unrestricted and temporarily restricted net assets to individuals who meet the College's academic standards. The amounts of such awards are determined primarily based upon the academic performance of each applicant. Additional financial aid is provided to students from federal and state programs in which the College participates and from monies contributed to the College by alumni and friends.

DiSepio Institute for Rural Health and Wellness ("DIRHW"), a separate not-for-profit organization, is a related party which requires consolidation under Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") guidance. DIRHW offers a series of health promotion and rehabilitation services to the College and surrounding community, particularly those who have limited resources and are underserved. DIRHW staff and members of the College's health and behavioral sciences departments pursue clinical research, engage in clinical teaching, and offer clinical services to members of the College and local communities.

The College evaluated subsequent events for recognition or disclosure through October 6, 2017, the date the financial statements were issued.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the College and DIRHW (collectively, the "University"). The activities of DIRHW have been consolidated in these financial statements due to the College having controlling interest in DIRHW through a majority voting interest in the board. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Accounts Receivable, Students

Accounts receivable, students are reported at net realizable value. Accounts receivable, students are not collateralized. Accounts are written off when they are determined to be uncollectible based upon management's assessment of individual accounts. The allowance for doubtful accounts is estimated based on the University's historical losses and periodic review of individual accounts.

Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give that are expected to be collected in future years are recorded at the present value of estimated future cash flows. The discounts on those amounts are computed using a risk adjusted interest rate applicable to the year in which the promise is received. Amortization of the discount is included in contribution revenue. An allowance is made for uncollectible contributions based upon management's judgment and analysis of the creditworthiness of the donors past collection experience and other relevant factors.

Conditional promises to give are promises for which donor-imposed conditions specify future and uncertain events whose occurrence or failure to occur release the donors from the obligation to transfer assets in the future. If and when such conditions have been substantially met, these promises cease to be conditional, and revenues are recorded, as appropriate.

Donor-Restricted Gifts

All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support that increases those net asset classifications. When a donor restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified as unrestricted net assets and reported in the consolidated statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

For contributed property and equipment and contributions restricted by donor for purchases of property and equipment, if donors stipulate how long the assets must be used, the contributions are recorded as temporarily restricted support. Temporarily restricted net assets related to these contributions are released from restriction equal to depreciation expense of the related assets. In the absence of such stipulations, these types of contributions are recorded as unrestricted support.

Investments

Equity securities with readily determinable fair values and debt securities are valued at fair value based on quoted market prices. Adjustments to reflect increases or decreases in market value, referred to as unrealized gains and losses, are reported in the consolidated statement of activities.

The cost of investments received as gifts is fair value as determined upon receipt. The cost of investments sold is determined by use of the specific identification method.

All realized and unrealized gains and losses arising from the sale or appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments, and all income from investments, are reported as changes in unrestricted net assets unless their use is temporarily or permanently restricted by explicit donor-imposed stipulations, or by law.

Alternative investments, representing ownership in private equity funds are valued at the net asset value equivalent of the underlying holdings.

The University's principal financial instruments subject to credit risk are its investments. The investments are managed by professional advisors subject to the University's investment policy. The degree and concentration of credit risk varies by type of investment. The fair values reported in the consolidated statement of financial position are exposed to various risks including changes in the equity markets, the interest rate environment, and general economic conditions. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the fair value of investment securities, it is reasonably possible that the amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated financial statements could change materially in the near term.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2017 and 2016

Plant Assets

Plant assets are stated at cost, if purchased, or fair value at the date of gift, if donated, less accumulated depreciation, computed on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives: buildings (12-62 years); land improvements (20-40 years); furniture and equipment (2-10 years); vehicles (5 years). Library books are stated at cost and are depreciated on a straight-line basis over an estimated useful life of 7 years. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred; replacements and betterments are capitalized.

Student Deposits and Prepayments

Tuition, fees, and room and board from currently enrolled students is billed in advance and is recognized as revenue when earned.

Advance from Federal Government for Student Loans

The University is a participant in the Federal Perkins Loan program, a program which makes student loans available to eligible participants. This program is funded by both the federal government and the University, with the portion estimated to be allocable to the federal government recorded as a liability in the consolidated statement of financial position, and the portion allocable to the University included in unrestricted net assets.

Temporarily and Permanently Restricted Net Assets

Temporarily restricted net assets are those whose use by the University has been limited to a specific time period or purpose. Permanently restricted net assets have been restricted by donors to be maintained by the University in perpetuity.

Tuition and Fees

Tuition and fees are presented net of grants-in-aid, scholarships, and fellowships.

Nonoperating Activities

For the purpose of the consolidated statement of activities, the University considers its changes in unrestricted net assets to be operational changes, except for changes related to gains or losses on investments, capital grants, and changes in the valuation of split-interest agreements.

Government Grants

Operating funds designated by government funding agencies for particular operating purposes are deemed to be earned and reported as revenues when the University has incurred expenditures in compliance with the contract.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred and amounted to approximately $967,000 in 2017 and $1,022,000 in 2016.

Saint Francis University

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2017 and 2016

Fund-Raising Costs

Fund-raising costs are expensed as incurred and amounted to approximately $1,182,000 in 2017 and $1,065,000 in 2016 and are included in institutional support in the consolidated statement of activities.

Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the consolidated statement of cash flows, the University considered all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less (excluding certain short-term instruments which are classified as investments) to be cash equivalents.

Functional Expenses

Depreciation of property and equipment, interest on long-term debt, and plant operations and maintenance costs are allocated to program and supporting activities based upon the facilities' primary uses.

Income Taxes

The University is a not-for-profit organization as described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and is exempt from federal income taxes on related income pursuant to Section 501(a) of the IRC.

The University accounts for uncertainty in income taxes using a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination by the appropriate taxing authority. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold is met. Management determined there were no tax uncertainties that met the recognition threshold in fiscal 2017 and 2016.

The University's policy is to recognize interest related to unrecognized tax benefits in interest expense and penalties in operating expenses.

Title IV Requirements

The University participates in Government Student Financial Assistance Programs ("Title IV") administered by the U.S. Department of Education ("ED") for the payment of student tuitions. Substantial portions of the revenue and collection of ending accounts receivable as of June 30, 2017 and 2016 are dependent upon the University's continued participation in the Title IV programs.

Institutions participating in the Title IV programs are also required by ED to demonstrate financial responsibility. ED determines an institution's financial responsibility through the calculation of a composite score based upon certain financial ratios as defined in the regulations. Institutions receiving a composite score of 1.5 or greater are considered fully financially responsible. Institutions receiving a composite score between 1.0 and 1.4 are subject to additional monitoring, and institutions receiving a score below 1.0 are required to submit financial guarantees in order to continue participation in the Title IV programs. As of June 30, 2017 and 2016 and for the years then ended, the University's composite score exceeded 1.5.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

New Accounting Standards Not Yet Adopted

During May 2014, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). ASU No. 2014-09 establishes principles for recognizing revenue upon the transfer of promised goods or services to customers, in an amount that reflects the expected consideration received in exchange for those goods or services. During 2015 and 2016, the FASB also issued ASU No. 2015-14, which defers the effective date of ASU No. 2014-09; ASU No. 2016-08, Principal versus Agent Considerations (Reporting Revenue Gross versus Net), which clarifies the implementation guidance on principal versus agent considerations in Topic 606; ASU No. 2016-10, Identifying Performance Obligations and Licensing, which clarifies the identification of performance obligations and the licensing implementation guidance; ASU No. 2016-12, Narrow-Scope Improvements and Practical Expedients and ASU No. 2016-20, Technical Corrections and Improvements to Topic 606, which both affect narrow aspects of Topic 606. Topic 606 (as amended) is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The University may elect to apply the guidance earlier, but no earlier than fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2016. The amendments may be applied retrospectively to each prior period presented or retroactively with the cumulative effect recognized as of the date of initial application. The University is currently assessing the effect that Topic 606 (as amended) will have on its results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

During February 2016, the FASB issued ASU No. 2016-02, Leases (Topic 842). ASU No. 2016-02 requires lessees to recognize the assets and liabilities that arise from leases on the statement of financial position. A lessee should recognize in the statement of financial position a liability to make lease payments (the lease liability) and a right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term. ASU No. 2016-02 is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. Early adoption is permitted. The University is currently assessing the effect that ASU No. 2016-02 will have on its results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

During August 2016, FASB issued ASU 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The new guidance improves and simplifies the current net asset classification requirements and information presented in financial statements and notes that is useful in assessing a not-for-profit's liquidity, financial performance and cash flows. ASU 2016-14 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2017, with early adoption permitted. ASU 2016-14 is to be applied retroactively with transition provisions. The University is assessing the impact this standard will have on its financial statements.

Saint Francis University

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

June 30, 2017 and 2016

During November 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-18, Statement of Cash Flows (Topic 230): Restricted Cash. The amendments in this update require that a statement of cash flows explain the change during the period in the total of cash, cash equivalents, and amounts generally described as restricted cash or restricted cash equivalents. Amounts generally described as restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents should be included with cash and cash equivalents when reconciling the beginning-of-period and end-of-period total amounts shown on the statement of cash flows. ASU 2016-18 is effective for non-public entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, with early adoption permitted. ASU 2016-18 is to be applied retroactively with transition provisions. The University is currently evaluating the effect that ASU 2016-18 will have on its financial statements.

2. Accounts Receivable, Student

Accounts receivable, student represent amounts due for tuition, fees, and room and board from currently enrolled and former students. The University extended unsecured credit to students and parents of dependent students in connection with their studies. Some of those students are no longer enrolled in the University.

Student accounts receivable consists of the following at June 30:

	2017	2016
Accounts receivable	$ 2,056,273	$ 2,202,414
Allowance for doubtful accounts	(255,000)	(300,000)
Net	$ 1,801,273	$ 1,902,414

3. Unconditional Promises to Give

Unconditional promises to give are recognized as revenue when the donor's commitment is received. Unconditional promises to be received after one year are initially recognized at the estimated present value of future cash flows, net of allowances (fair value).

Unconditional promises to give at June 30 are as follows:

	2017	2016
In one year or less	$ 422,368	$ 777,818
Between one year and five years	813,904	1,248,336
More than five years	7,500	15,000
Allowance for doubtful collections	(264,980)	(368,531)
Discount	(169,634)	(155,458)
Unconditional promises to give, net	$ 809,158	$ 1,517,165

The net present value of these cash flows was determined by using risk adjusted discount rates between .33% and 4.17% to account for the time value of money for 2017 and 2016.

Management believes the University's allowance for doubtful collections at June 30, 2017 and 2016 is adequate based upon information currently known. However, events impacting donors can occur in subsequent years that may cause a material change in the allowance for doubtful collections.

4. Fair Value Measurements, Investments and Other Financial Instruments

The University measures its investments and beneficial interest in remainder trust at fair value on a recurring basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The framework that the authoritative guidance established for measuring fair value includes a hierarchy used to classify the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy prioritizes the inputs used in determining valuations into three levels. The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 - Fair value is based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible to the University for identical assets or liabilities. These generally provide the most reliable evidence and are used to measure fair value whenever available.

Level 2 - Fair value is based on significant inputs, other than Level 1 inputs, that are observable either directly or indirectly for substantially the same term of the asset or liability through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 inputs include quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets, quoted market prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets, and other observable inputs.

Level 3 - Fair value is based on significant unobservable inputs. Examples of valuation methodologies that would result in Level 3 classification include option pricing models, discounted cash flows and other similar techniques.

The preceding tables includes cash surrender value of life insurance in the amount of $127,605 and $124,875 at June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively, which approximates estimated fair value and which is included in investments in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Change in the valuation of split interest agreements is reported as nonoperating activity in the consolidated statement of activities.

Valuation Methodologies

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in methodologies used at June 30, 2017 and 2016.

Cash and cash equivalents: The carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those financial instruments.

Investments: Mutual funds and marketable equity securities in the investment portfolio are measured at fair value using quoted market prices for identical assets, which are considered Level 1 inputs. Bond obligations are valued based on quoted prices of similar assets, with similar terms, in actively traded markets and are measured using Level 2 inputs.

Alternative Investments: The University measures the fair value for these alternative investments based on NAV as a practical expedient, without further adjustment, unless it is probable that the investment will be sold at a significantly different value. If not determined as of the Fund's measurement date, net asset value ("NAV") is adjusted to reflect any significant events that would materially affect the security's value. Certain attributes that impact the security's fair value may not be reflected in NAV, including, but not limited to, the investor's ability to redeem the investment at the measurement date and unfunded purchase commitments. If the University sold all or a portion of its alternative investments, it is reasonably possible that the transaction value could differ significantly from the estimated fair value at the measurement date, because of the nature of the investments, changes in market conditions and the overall economic environment. Investments that are measured at fair value using the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) practical expedient have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in the table above are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The alternative investments represent investments in private equity funds that pursue multiple strategies to diversify risks and reduce volatility. The alternative investments pursue multiple strategies as follows:

- LBC Credit Partners, II is a private equity fund focused on providing middle market financing and equity co-investments in companies with earnings generally greater than $7.5 million. Their financing promotes transactions such as buyouts, acquisitions, recapitalizations, etc. Valuations are determined by the General Partner which are then reviewed by the Valuation Committee. For publicly traded securities, the value is based on the average price of the 5 trading dates immediately prior to the valuation date. All other securities are valued using fair market value techniques which include arm's length transactions, market multiples, discounted cash flow, etc. The duration of this investment is the 10th anniversary of the final closing date, however this may be extended at the General Partner's discretion for up to two one-year periods. The University is committed for the duration of the investment and has committed $500,000 ($175,870 is unfunded as of June 30, 2017).
- Patriot Financial Partners, L.P. is a private equity fund focused on investing in community banks, thrifts and financial service related companies throughout the United States. Patriot's objective is to provide superior risk-adjusted returns by applying a hands-on, value-added investment model to non-control investments within the community banking sector, which consists of more than 1,000 public and privately-held depository institutions that have between $500 million and $5 billion of assets. Valuations are determined by the General Partner which require approval from the Advisory Committee. For publicly traded securities, the value is based on the average price of the 10 trading dates immediately prior to the valuation date. All other securities are valued using fair market value techniques which include arm's length transactions, market multiples, discounted cash flow, etc. The duration of this investment is the 10th anniversary of the final closing date, however this may be extended at the General Partner's discretion for up to two one-year periods. The University is committed for the duration of the investment and has committed $750,000 ($3,040 is unfunded as of June 30, 2017).

There are no redemption restrictions associated with the alternative investments.

Net gains and losses (realized and unrealized) are reported as nonoperating activity - investment gain/(loss) in the consolidated statement of activities.

5. Student Loans Receivable

Student loans are made with funds advanced to the University by the federal government under the Federal Perkins Loan program (the "Program"). Such funds may be reloaned by the University after collection, but in the event that the University no longer participates in the Program, the amounts are refundable to the federal government. The federal government's portion of these funds at June 30, 2017 and 2016 was $1,153,951 and $1,162,440, respectively.

The University matches and contributes one-third of the amount contributed by the U.S. Government to the Program.

The prescribed practices for the Program do not provide for accrual of interest on student loans receivable or for a provision of allowance for doubtful loans. Accordingly, interest on loans is recorded as received; uncollectible loans are not recognized until the loans are canceled or written off in conformity with Federal Perkins Loan Program requirements. The impact of recording interest income on a cash basis is not considered significant. In addition, the credit quality of the student is not evaluated after the initial approval and calculation of the loans. Delinquent loans and the allowance for losses on loans receivable are reviewed by management, but are not material to the overall consolidated financial statements.

Total	$ 1,944,673

Interest expense on long-term debt was approximately $1,270,000 and $1,278,000 in 2017 and 2016, respectively.

10. Capital Leases

The University leases fitness equipment under capital leases, which expire in 2019. The assets and liabilities under capital leases are recorded at the present value of the minimum lease payments. The assets are included in plant assets and are amortized over the lease terms. Amortization of assets under capital leases are included in depreciation expense.

The cost and accumulated amortization of equipment under capital leases were as follows at June 30, 2017:

Cost of equipment under capital lease	$ 92,827
Accumulated amortization	(23,207)
Total	$ 69,620

Minimum future lease payments under capital leases as of June 30, 2017 are as follows:

12. Endowment Funds

The University's endowment consists of approximately 200 individual funds established for a variety of purposes. Its endowment includes both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments. As required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the Board of Trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

The Board of Trustees of the University has interpreted Pennsylvania law as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the University classified as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment, and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund. The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as either temporarily restricted or unrestricted net assets based on the existence of donor restrictions or by law.

The University considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund
- (2) The purpose of the University and the donor-restricted endowment fund
- (3) General economic conditions
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
- (6) Other resources of the University
- (7) The investment policies of the University

Saint Francis University

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

June 30, 2017 and 2016

The University has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the University must hold in perpetuity or for a donor-specified period(s) as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the Board of Trustees, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the performance of a median balanced fund while assuming a moderate level of investment risk. The University expects its endowment funds, over time, to provide an average rate of return of approximately 6%, net of fees, annually. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the University relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The University targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania law permits the University to allocate to income each year a portion of endowment return. The law allows non-profit organizations to spend a percentage of the market value of their endowment funds, including realized and unrealized gains. The percentage by law must be between 2% and 7%. The University's policy for fiscal years 2017 and 2016 allowed for a payout of 5% of the three-year average balance as measured by the last six semi-annual balance points excluding the current period, which is based on market value net of investment management fees. In establishing this policy, the University considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the University expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to grow at an average of 4.5% annually. This is consistent with the University's objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets held in perpetuity or for a specified term as well as to provide additional real growth through new gifts and investment return.

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or law requires the University to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, deficiencies of this nature that are reported in unrestricted net assets were $43,544 as of June 30, 2016. There were no deficiencies at June 30, 2017. These deficiencies resulted from unfavorable market fluctuations that occurred shortly after the investment of new permanently restricted contributions and continued appropriation for certain programs that was deemed prudent by the Board of Trustees.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements
June 30, 2017 and 2016

13. Pension Plan

The University sponsors a defined contribution pension plan. Pension expense was approximately $2,038,000 in 2017 and $2,060,000 in 2016.

14. Franciscan Sponsorship

The University paid full salaries to the religious faculty and staff of approximately $720,000 and $673,000 during the years ended June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

15. Government Grants and Student Aid

The amounts under these captions do not include amounts remitted to students under the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency Program and the PELL Grants Program. These grants are similar to agency funds as the University acts only as custodian and disbursing agent. Had these amounts been included, revenues and expenses would have increased by approximately $4,046,000 in 2017 and $4,386,000 in 2016.

16. Significant Group Concentration of Credit Risk

The University maintains its cash accounts in commercial banks located in Pennsylvania. Accounts are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. From time to time, the bank balances will exceed this coverage.

17. Contingencies

The University participates in a Private College Consortium (the "Consortium"), a cooperative effort between educational institutions to purchase medical services for their collective group. The Consortium uses "cost plus funding", a fully insured product under Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield ("Highmark"). Under this arrangement, the Consortium pays a predetermined premium based on Highmark's underwriting projections. At the close of each contract period, Highmark calculates an amount by which the Consortium has either overfunded or underfunded the trust fund created in connection with the arrangement. This calculation takes into consideration the premiums paid by the group, claims paid during the contract period, claims paid but not incurred during the contract period, claims incurred but not paid during the contract period and a reserve deposit. The Consortium limits its claims exposure through the purchase of stop loss insurance, which pays 100% of the sum of all actual claim payments for covered health benefits made to a covered individual in a policy year that exceed $275,000, with an unlimited lifetime maximum. The University's share of the Consortium's trust fund surplus was approximately $488,000 and $531,000 at June 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The University's premium payments to the Consortium amounted to approximately $4,501,000 in 2017 and $4,117,000 in 2016. Although there is a potential refund due if the University elects to terminate participation in the Consortium, management has concluded that it would not be appropriate to record this potential refund in the consolidated financial statements due to the uncertainties surrounding its realization.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements June 30, 2017 and 2016

The University participates in the University and College Insurance Consortium ("UCIC"). UCIC is a self-insurance group providing workers' compensation coverage to member educational institutions. As part of the agreement with UCIC, the University is contingently liable for possible additional workers compensation premiums. As of June 30, 2017, management does not expect any significant contingencies.

The University owns property constructed prior to the passage of the Clean Air Act that contain encapsulated asbestos material. Current law requires that this asbestos be removed in an environmentally safe manner prior to demolition or renovation of the property. The University has not recognized the asset retirement obligation for asbestos removal in its consolidated financial statements because it currently has no plans to demolish or renovate this property and as such, cannot reasonably estimate the fair value of the obligation. If plans change with respect to the use of the property and sufficient information becomes available to estimate the liability it will be recognized at that time.
