Nine Deez Nite

...more than just a cover band from NJ, Nine Deez Nite is THE tribute to the 90s! Whether it's opening for Red Hot Chili Peppers at the Prudential Center or rocking out at Metlife stadium prior to a NY Giants game, Nine Deez Nite pride themselves on delivering an exciting flashback of 90s nostalgia. Their show keeps the audience rockin' to songs they love, and songs they've forgotten they love. From Pearl Jam to 'NSYNC, Snoop Dogg and Nirvana...the fun never stops with Nine Deez Nite! In between sets, the "Nine Deez MegaMix Dance Party" keeps people dancing while others play free SNES & SEGA at the "Nine Deez Arcade." The audience is also part of the show as a lucky contestant will test their 90s knowledge during "Nine Deez Trivia." Winners walk away with authentic 90s memorabilia! For the 30 year-old reliving college days to the now 20 year-old reminiscing childhood memories, 90s Night with Nine Deez Nite" is one excellent adventure!

SFU Bands proudly present "Grease Sing-A-Long" with Eddie Deezen (JFK Auditorium)

Best known for his role as Eugene in Grease, Eddie Deezen has appeared in numerous movies. His major film credits include "Grease", "Grease 2", "Midnight Madness", "1941", and "WarGames". Eddie had larger and starring roles in a number of independent cult films, including "Surf II: The End of the Trilogy", "Mob Boss", "I Wanna Hold Your Hand", "Beverly Hills Vamp", and "Teenage Exorcist". As a voice actor, he is easily recognizable for his distinctively high-pitched and nasal voice, most notably used for the characters of Mandark in the Cartoon Network series "Dexter's Laboratory", Snipes the Magpie in "Rock-A-Doodle", Ned in "Kim Possible", and the Know-It-All Kid in "The Polar Express". Come out for a great night of sing-a-long fun with the movie Grease, and meet actor Eddie Deezen! Tickets can be purchased at sfuathletics.com/bands.
